SUNDAY 13TH MAY 2012 - £20 PER PERSON

Approximate time 10:30 am until 19:00pm

- Sights to visit include the Observatory, Cutty Sark, the Arts and Craft Market, the Maritime Museum, the Old Royal Naval College, Greenwich Meridian and the Greenwich Foot Tunnel that takes you under the Thames, to name just a few!

The Cutty Sark relaunches on 26 April 2012. Cutty Sark is a true London landmark and national icon of British maritime history. Her relaunch opens a new chapter in the extraordinary life of one of the world's most famous ships – the last surviving tea clipper and the fastest and greatest of her time. A new and immersive experience will allow you to venture both underneath and aboard this unique and beautiful three-masted sailing ship and to view the elegant lines of her hull. Explore the ship's rich and tumultuous history, her cargoes from tea to buffalo horns, and the cultures and lives she has touched throughout her 140-year lifespan.

This is a very worthwhile attraction to go and see after lunch. Anyone wishing to take a guided tour of the newly refurbished clipper will need to pre-book the tickets. This can be done on-line by going to www.rmg.co.uk/cuttysark/ and clicking on 'Book Now'. It would be advisable to not book after 4pm so as not to miss the coach back home.

A great day out for all of the family!
Please book as early as possible.
